Not only the highest level of construction and aesthetics but also the timeless architectural design in combination with the unique view are some of the basic features of this magnificent four bedroom house in Aradippou.

Aradippou is excellent for accessing the main highway that leads to Nicosia and Limassol. Aradippou is approximately 2 km west of Larnaca town, close to the sea front and Marina as well the local schools, banks, supermarkets and shopping Center.

On the ground floor there is an open plan living room, dinning room area with fireplace. The property entails a modern designed kitchen which is separated from the living room area and this allows for some privacy. Also there is one guest toilet on the ground floor.

A modern design staircase takes you to the first floor where there four spacious bedrooms with one family bathroom for undisturbed
